

We always get asked what do people use beeswax for? Here is 101 uses for beeswax!
You can get raw all natural beeswax at:
meadowlilyfarm.com

- 1) lubricant for very old furniture joints.
- 2) Smooth movement for doors and windows.
- 3) Component for mustache creams.
- 4) Prevents bronze items from tarnishing.
- 5) Use as a rest prevention.
- 6) Furniture polish when mixed with linseed oil and mineral spirits in equal parts.
- 7) covering cheeses and preservatives to protect from spoilage.
- 8) Conditioner for wood bowls and cutting boards.
- 9) Coat nails and screws to prevent wood from splintering.
- 10) Used by NASA with an enzyme to mop up oceanic oil spills.
- 11) Cake guitar bodies to boost longevity.
- 12) Coat tambourine surfaces for thumb roll playing technique.
- 13) Coat reeds for woodwinds to get a tight fit.
- 14) Egg painting in a Ukraine folk art of Pysanky.
- 15) An essential ingredient in Indian art of fabric dyeing called Batik printing.
- 16) Candles that don't drip and have no smoke.
- 17) In candy like gummy bears, worms and jelly beans.

- 18) To water proof leather.
- 19) Molten beeswax to polish granite counter tops.
- 20) To make crayons.
- 21) With palm oil for soap. The palm oil reduces scars and the wax a natural moisturizer.
- 22) Mix with palm wax for a natural hair remover.
- 23) To reduce bow string friction.
- 24) on whips to water proof.
- 25) in bullets.
- 26) With comfrey and chick weed powder to alleviate itching.
- 27) Wire pulling.
- 28) Sewing to strengthen the thread and prevent snagging.
- 29) To fill seams between pieces of slate when setting up a pool table.
- 29) Plucking the feathers from fowl.
- 30) As a flexible mold for a variety of mediums.
- 31) Jewelry.
- 32) Clean your clothes Iron.
- 33) In glass Etching.
- 34) Encaustic Painting.
- 35) To make earplugs.
- 36) Ear Candling.

- 37) When fashioning Dreadlocks.
- 38) To make Dental floss.
- 39) For cracked animal hooves.
- 40) When making cosmetics.
- 41) When making chocolates.
- 42) Copper sinks.
- 43) Removing previous waxes.
- 44) In Blacksmithing.
- 45) Basketry.
- 46) To coat Baking pans for smooth exit of goods.
- 47) To coat the hemp strings on Bag Pipes.
- 48) To make lip balms.
- 49) Barbeque preparation.
- 50) When making healing salves, creams and ointments.
- 51) Use in pharmaceuticals.
- 53) In manufacturing of electronic components and CDs.
- 54) As a polish for shoes and floors.
- 56) To unsticking drawers.
- 57) Keep zippers moving smoothly.
- 58) To water proof boots and saddles.
- 59) To coat hand tools to prevent rust.

- 60) To lower cholesterol, ulcers, diarrhea and hiccups.
- 69) To relief pain, swelling (inflammation)
- 70) In beverages.
- 71) In manufacturing as a thickener or emulsifier.
- 72) In fragrances in perfumes.
- 73) To seal documents.
- 74) An ingredient in surgical bone wax.
- 75) Blended with pine rosin to serve as an adhesive.
- 77) A metal injection moulding binder component.
- 76) In the embalming process.
- 78) As a stabilizer in the military explosive Torpex.
- 79) To coat hemp strands – an alternative use to lighters.
- 80) A natural Air purifier.
- 81) Glazing of fruits and vegetables.
- 82) Chewing beeswax can help quit the habit of smoking.
- 83) As a hair pompay.
- 84) Grafting plants.
- 85) In the restoration of pictures.
- 86) Wax fly fishing lines so they float.
- 87) To keep saws sharp.
- 88) Grinding and polishing of optical lenses.

- 89) Used in crafting of dentures and other dental equipment.
- 90) To seal and polish smoke fired pottery.
- 91) Used on snow skis for a good glide.
- 92) Used for base ring for toilets (in the past).
- 93) Use3d to cover a broken wire on braces until you get to your orthodontist.
- 95) To prevent stretch marks.
- 96) Saturate cardboard with beeswax and use as a fuel for a backpackers fuel for stove.
- 97) Beeswax candle as emergency heat when trapped in a car or small space.
- 98) Temporary filling until you can see your dentist.
- 99) To seal stick matches to stay dry when boating, fishing or skiing.
- 100) To prevent slippage for belts in vacuums and sewing machines.
- 101) As a wood filler